THE GIRLS OF THE GARDEN CLUB

September 23, 24, 30; October 1, 2, 7, 8, 9

Directed by Carla Crandall
A COMEDY IN THREE ACTS BY JOHN PATRICK

Come join us for an hilarious play by "one of theatre's leading writers of comedies which, as the title suggests, deals with the indomitable ladies whose lives revolve around the often outlandish doings of the local garden club. "GIRLS" is a delight because it reflects reality. For every comic characterization onstage you can recall someone in your own life as a double offstage". - Chronicle-Telegram

DASHING THROUGH THE SNOW

November 25, 26; December 2, 3, 4, 9, 10, 11

Directed by Connie Murello-Todd
BY JESSIE JONES, NICHOLAS HOPE, JAMIE WOOTEN

It's four days before Christmas in the tiny town of Tinsel, Texas, where it's Christmas 24/7, 365 days a year. Enter a colorful parade of eccentric guests that arrive at the Snowflake Inn and deck the halls with holiday hilarity, including a couple of self-involved actors from a lower-than-low-budget touring production of "A Christmas Carol," who descend on the Inn to fulfill a promise. Add to this Yuletide mayhem is an ill-advised romantic rendezvous, a demanding guest who refuses to leave, a tipsy housekeeper, and a spur-of-the-moment wedding. This comedy will have you laughing 'til your sides ache.

Don't miss out on all the drama!

HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS WITHOUT REALLY TRYING

January 27, 28; February 3, 4, 5, 10, 11, 12

Directed by Jeff Bick
BOOK BY ABE BURROWS,
JACK WEINSTOCK & WILLIE GILBERT
MUSIC AND LYRICS BY FRANK LOESSER;
BASED ON "HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS
WITHOUT REALLY TRYING" BY SHEPHERD MEADO

A man makes his business dreams come true through an extravaganza of music and dance in this musical satire of corporate life.

THE FOREIGNER

March 24, 25, 31; April 1, 2, 7, 8, 9

Directed by Dana Lesh
WRITTEN BY LARRY SHUE

This high-energy comedy centers around Charlie, a hopelessly shy Englishman, who is on a reluctant holiday in a lodge in rural Georgia. He is desperately afraid of personal interaction, so his friend concocts a story, telling the locals that Charlie is from a faraway foreign country and doesn't speak a word of English. This leads to many complications as Charlie overhears more than he should. The fact that he does boxes him further and further into the playacting of being "the exotic foreigner" – and fuels the nonstop hilarity of the play as he becomes more and more involved in the bizarre goings-on.

PERFECT WEDDING

June 2, 3, 9, 10, 11, 16, 17, 18

Directed by Elaine Wagner
A COMEDY BY ROBIN HAWDON

It's the BIG day! The church is in readiness mode, the food and flowers are lovely, the gown is breathtaking, and the out-of-town guests have arrived. It all begins this afternoon. The only little (?) problem is the after-effects of the bachelor party the night before. Roll down the aisle with laughter as the groom ("Who was she?"), the best man ("That lie won't float"), the bride and her mother ("Remain calm"), and the hotel maid ("I won't do it!") struggle with the truth so that all might live happily ever after!

THE LITTLE MERMAID (Apprentice Players)

July 28, 29, 30; August 4, 5, 6

Directed by Connie Murello-Todd
BOOK BY DOUG WRIGHT; LYRICS BY HOWARD
ASHMAN & GLENN SLATER; MUSIC BY ALAN MENKEN

Based on a Hans Christian Andersen's story and the classic animated film, "The Little Mermaid" this love story is hauntingly beautiful. With award-winning music and lyrics, this fishy fable will capture your heart with its irresistible songs. Ariel, King Triton's youngest daughter, wishes to pursue the human, Prince Eric, in the world above, bargaining with the evil sea witch, Ursula, to trade her tail for legs. But the bargain is not what it seems, as Ariel needs the help of friends to restore order under the sea.
