OUR TOWN

September 14-30

Directed by Nancy Lafferty
 BY THORNTON WILDER

Please join us in our 54th season as we celebrate the 80th year of this American classic Pulitzer Prize-winning play by Thornton Wilder. "Our Town" tells the story of a fictional American small town during the early 1900s, through the everyday lives of its citizens. On a bare stage, with the use of heavy pantomime, the story of life, love and death unfolds before us with delicacy and tenderness. With humor, wit, and exceptionally powerful storytelling, Our Town offers us universal truths about what it means to be human - in any town, at any time.

IT'S A WONDERFUL LIFE

November 23 - December 9

Directed by Sam Brown
 ADAPTED BY DOUG RAND

An adaptation of Frank Capra's "It's A Wonderful Life," the play is a traditional stage drama based on the short story and booklet The Greatest Gift, which Philip Van Doren Stern wrote in 1939 and published privately in 1945. The play is based on the fictional George Bailey, a building and loan banker who sacrifices his dreams in order to help his community, to the point where he feels life has passed him by. Eventually, due to a cruel business rival's manipulations, Bailey falls into despair so deep that he contemplates suicide, until his guardian angel, Clarence Odbody, gives him a valuable perspective on the worth of his life.

THE SAVANNAH SIPPING SOCIETY

February 1-17

by Barcia Miller Alejos
 BY JONES, HOPE & WOOTEN

Four unique women, all needing to escape the sameness of their day-to-day routines, are drawn together by fate....And an impromptu Happy Hour! They decide it's time to reclaim the enthusiasm for life they've lost through the years. Over the course of six months, filled with laughter, hilarious misadventures, and the occasional liquid refreshment, these middle-aged women successfully bond and find the confidence to jump-start their new lives on the ever and ah of a Savannah, Georgia home. Together, they discover lasting friendships and a renewed determination to live in the moment. Most importantly, they realize it's never too late to make new "old friends."

GILLIGAN'S ISLAND: THE MUSICAL

March 29 - April 14

Directed by James H. Williams
 WORDS & MUSIC BY HOPE AND LAURENCE JUBER;
 BOOK BY SHERWOOD SCHWARTZ AND LLOYD J. SCHWARTZ; BASED ON THE TV SHOW "GILLIGAN'S ISLAND"; CREATED BY SHERWOOD SCHWARTZ

"Gilligan" patriarch Sherwood Schwartz - collaborating with son Lloyd (book), daughter Hope and her husband, ex-Wings lead guitarist Laurence Juber (music and lyrics) - has created an original play that could well be an elongated "Gilligan's Island" episode. In Hawaii, Gilligan and The Skipper are giving out tours. Five passengers - a movie star from Hollywood, a general store sales clerk from Kansas, a professor, and two millionaires - board the SS Minnow for a 3-hour tour. Shipwrecked on a remote Pacific island, the seven castaways build huts and begin to explore their surroundings. Gilligan foils the castaway's rescue plans. Eighteen original, tuneful and memorable songs.

RED, WHITE AND TUNA

May 31- June 16

Directed by Ron Richards
 WRITTEN BY JASTON WILLIAMS,
 ED HOWARD, AND JOE SEARS

The much-anticipated third installment in the Tuna trilogy takes the audience through another satirical ride into the hearts and minds of the polyester-clad citizens of Texas' third-smallest town. Along with Tuna's perennial favorites, some new Tuna denizens burst into the 4th of July Tuna High School Class Reunion. This sets the stage for a show full of fireworks and fun from the land where the Lions Club is too liberal and Patsy Cline never dies.

HONK! THE MUSICAL

July 26 - August 4

Directed by James H. Williams
 BY ANTHONY DREWE

Honk! is a musical adaptation of the Hans Christian Andersen story The Ugly Duckling, incorporating a message of tolerance. The book and lyrics are by Anthony Drewe and music is by George Stiles. The musical is set in the countryside and features Ugly, a cygnet that is mistaken as an ugly duckling upon falling into his mother's nest and is rejected by everyone but Ida, a sly tomcat who only befriends him out of hunger, and several other barnyard characters.
